Dear Dot,

I only have a few minutes. I'm on guard. I get off at 12 P.M. It's almost that now.

I enjoyed your letter very much. Especially since I haven't been getting many this week.

I am going home Tue. or Wed. of next week. I had better add, as the "darker" said - "as far as I know"

The Reader's Digest has kept me company tonight. I certainly appreciate your sending it to me. If you have read "War Comes to the Training Camps" you have a good idea of some of the training I have had. It doesn't seem as dangerous as they say. I haven't been through it all. I did go through the infiltration course and the "Nazie" village.

Did I tell you about riding motorcycles? I've been riding around camp on Sunday's.

Well its time to "knock off". I'd better get some sleep.

Love
Russell
