Dear Mom,

I believe I wrote you last on the 3rd. I'll try to write more often.

Had a long letter from Dorothy this week. I suppose she was making up for lost time as she hadn't written for several weeks.

Your description of the church window is very interesting. Wish I could see it.

You asked about the papers.
I have received several copies of both. Thought I had told you, guess not.

I weighed 145 on the PX scales this afternoon. Am not as fat as I thought. Hi!

From the news in Europe maybe John will be home soon. Love to all
Russell
