

777 Oak Ave.

Knoxville, Tenn.

Nov. 14, 1949

Dear Mom + Dad,

As you know without our saying so - we're terrible about writing. But we think and talk about you often, wish we could see more of you. Won't you come over and spend this weekend with us? Come over Friday or Saturday and stay until Sunday afternoon. They can get along without you for that long, I'm sure. And if you'd like to go see Uncle Luther - we could do that.

Mildred and Brenda are getting along fine now. We saw them a week ago, Saturday. Brenda didn't gain like she should for a while but she is now.

2

How are Bernice and Johnny? I suppose they are getting 'settled' in their new home.

Where is Aunt Mary now? Will she be in Lansing at Christmas time? Would she rather have a gown or hose for Christmas?

Will Dorothy and Jewel get home for Thanksgiving? I believe Bernice said they would be at Mascot.

Mother, Daddy & Gladys were here yesterday. We drove over to see Dorothy & Lynwood at Maryville.

Please do try to come. You folks can have the bedroom, Russell and I will sleep in the living room. Then I can get busy in the kitchen without bothering you.

Happy birthday today. Mom.

Love

Russell + Margaret

over

Mama,

Hope you had a happy Birthday!
Sorry we are late with the card.

I don't see Roy G. very often, but the last time I saw him, he said that Uncle Luther wasn't too well.

If Dad had rather not drive, you could come on the bus. I think there is only one train a day, so that might not work so good.

Be sure to let us know if you are coming, and certainly hope that you can.

Love to all,

Russell

727 Dale Ave.
Knoxville, Tenn.

Russell

Mr. & Mrs. J. L. Scott
Lancing
Tennessee