Dear Alice -

Boy, you really "cut loose" with a barrage, or somethin' this time - whooee - four pages!

You're always going somewhere in Mr. Seipers little car - what kind of a ration stamp do preachers carry anyway that enables him to get around so much? Perhaps he makes his own gasoline - (or is his a kerosene burner) - he's quite adept at a good number of other things - artist - minister - musician - singer - mechanic. Bernice said - (I'm still laughing about that) that "Mr Seiper got out to adjust the cylinders." Maybe my laughing is not justified - his is indeed a very strange and versatile "little car." Perhaps he did, indeed, adjust the cylinders

Hearing the missionary from China must have been terribly boring and dull. For you didn't even hint on what he had to say. How long has he been back in the States?

Yes, I remember something about Mr. Helen - but I know I wouldn't recognize him, if I should meet him.

That gun you drew looks dangerous - I can see you've been seeing a lot of boom. boom war pictures in the magazines. Even an ink splotch on a plain sheet of paper makes you think of a gun. Your picture looks like a gun turret on a battleship.

rewritten volumes of "Story of the Aleutians" - I am going to type it all for you - also for Jewell.

Say hello to everybody for me. I owe Bernice two letters now - I'm away behind -

Love to all,

Bill
