Dear Mama

What in the world
has happened down there anyway? Do you have corn night and day, or have they rationed paper.
I haven't heard from you in a good two weeks, and I don't know whether you're all sick, or there, or what.

I'm gonna write two and three letters a day until I hear from you.

I don't put any faith in the saying that "no news is good news" — let me
hear from you right
away.

Love,
Bill
