Dear Dorothy -

You said you didn't know whether I would be surprised, shocked, or what - on seeing the picture. Well, I don't know either. But it certainly has created quite a stir in these parts. The guys look at it, then look at me with a queer sort of way that seems to be saying - "incredible" - Some of them look and ask - "Golly! who's she?" Others take a long, slow look and wander off without saying anything. But - here's where the fun comes in - the fellows who know me best ask the usual run of questions - "Is that your girl?"

"No." (When I explain) "Is that hair natural?" One guy thought I had written to Hollywood for it - I had some fun trying to convince him. No - he's not from Missouri - but Bronx, N.Y.

The boys in the office admired it a couple of days but I have it displayed over my bunk now with the rest of my gallery - which is 100% feminine of course.

Tell her I said thanks very much - she does make a very nice pinup.

I wrote you not so long ago - you hadn't received it yet when you wrote. I'm going to a movie in a few minutes so I'll have to stop. You will be hearing more from me soon. In the meantime, take good care of yourself - Everything OK here -

Love,
Bill
