Dear Dorothy—

Hold your breath and sit down— I'm coming home on furlough. If it is OK with you I won't answer your letter— just a note with an inkling of my plans. I say inkling because I can't be too sure just what will happen. As you know, I must visit Akron— and I'll probably be through there ^{Cincy} because I have to go to Ft McPherson, Ga. first and get my furlough from there. I'll spend a few days at home first, naturally— you may want to see me there. I'll try to keep you posted as to my whereabouts after I arrive in the U.S.

At any rate— I'll see you for sure—

Love,
Bill

P.S.— I hope you haven't mailed the cake—
