Dear Mom -

You wrote a wonderful letter. Please don't feel that because this letter is short I don't appreciate it enough. I went to a movie tonight. The Post Band gave us a 30 minute concert before the show - so I got back kinda late

I got a letter from Johnny today - written on the 12th of May. And there was a picture, of all things. He's sitting on a box at the edge of a group with a big smile and a cup of coffee. It's small but it's good.

And now a word about my possible participation in a choir and I must close. A Chaplain Sparks here conducts a song service via our local radio station every Sunday. Last Sunday he announced that the choir could use some help - so I contacted the Chaplain and I'm going up for my first practice session this Saturday evening. I'll let you know what develops - if anything.

Hope you are all well -

Love,
Bill

P.S. - I'll write you again soon.
