Dear Walter, -

I wonder if you have heard from me since you crossed. You seem to be having bad luck with your mail. Your letter written Aug. 9th reached me Sept. 6th.

Surely you have heard about our condition at home and knew how lonesome we are.

It is so hard. We have a great deal to be thankful for though and we are trying to look on the bright side. When you come back I can tell you more.

Two dozen more boys left last week for camp. All seem anxious to go.

You were mighty glad to see the home boys I know.

You can imagine how we all are reading the papers to learn all we can about what you are doing.

Liz and I are still in the store but we may possibly sell out.

Mr. Lane wants a building Nov 1st when Quinn take possession of their store building again.

Lane "says" he has "cash in hand" for property and goods. Of course that is the only way we would sell.

Gladys teaches home school and stays at home. She keeps one of Abria's children with her and that is all at home until Friday evening when Papa gets in from Sunbight. He teaches there again.

Our pastor, Rev. Taylor has resigned his church work to take up A. M. S. A. work - our seas. if he can get in.

If we should sell out I guess I will go to Sunbight and take his place in the school there.

You ought to see me trying to knit socks. I may get one pair finished by Xmas.

How are you and the "cooties"
making it?

I must get them few lines to the P. O. Write often

Best wishes and good luck.

Your friend
Stella
